

Sunday, June 17 - 24, 2018

December is a great time to enjoy the music of Johann Sebastian Bach, and we hope you are enjoying both the holiday season and the music.

The Bach Virtuosi Festival is pleased to begin sharing "Videos with the Virtuosi" and articles featuring our Virtuosi musicians on a monthly basis.

Please enjoy this first video that features Lewis Kaplan discussing the importance of Johann Sebastian Bach, in addition to updates from two of the Virtuosi: Ariadne Daskalakis and Arthur Haas. (next month, we will feature soprano Sherezade Panthaki and countertenor Jay Carter).

WATCH A VIDEO: LEWIS KAPLAN - THE IMPORTANCE OF BACH

Please consider making a year-end gift to Bach Virtuosi Festival, a program of Aeolian Chamber Players, Inc., a non-profit tax-exempt organization, by December 31st. Your gift is tax-deductible to the full extent of the law.

Our address is at the bottom of this page.

Thank you!

Arthur Haas - Harpsichord

Working on and performing Bach brings a kind of total satisfaction to me that is hard to match with other composers or styles. The music is intellectually stimulating, uses amazingly sophisticated harmonies...

[\[Click to read more from Arthur\]](#)

Ariadne Daskalakis - Violin

I have been recording the works for violin and orchestra by Franz Schubert, on period instruments. I just performed concerti by Andreas Romberg, Giuseppe Tartini and J.S. Bach with the Cologne Academy Orchestra and the New Rhine Chamber Orchestra...

[\[Click to read more from Ariadne\]](#)

Members of Bach Virtuosi Festival

(from left to right): Ariadne Daskalakis, Arthur Haas, Beiliang Zhu, Emi Ferguson

Contact Us

