

BACH VIRTUOSI Festival

Sunday, June 17 - 24

Tickets for the Bach Virtuosi Festival will go on sale next week. To celebrate spring awakenings, we will offer an early bird season ticket pass for $100 through April 2018. Buy your season pass before the price goes up and enjoy a 20% savings! We will have additional details about the on-sale date next week.

We continue our Videos with the Virtuosi series this week with flutist Emi Ferguson, and a Q&A interview with violinist Yibin Li, two musicians who are well known to our Portland audience, having shared the stages of St. Luke's Cathedral and Synagogue Etz Chaim for a couple years.

Please enjoy these interviews and consider sharing this e-mail with friends and family, who enjoy spectacular classical music, and recommending that they sign up to receive our newsletters and updates. Enjoy !

Yibin Li - Violin

Baroque music is very challenging to play because it is intelligent and expressive, but not excessive. Since last June, I traveled to France twice and played four chamber music concerts in and around Paris.
